	Action point (and location in minutes)	Action for	Comment
7 June 2023
1	Item 5 - Registration Performance (ETC 05/23) 5.4: The Committee asked the Executive to think about including more quality data into the report, noting it was good in terms of process but there was a need for assurance on the quality of work being delivered and the registrant experience. The Executive referenced upcoming work with the Quality Assurance team to look at quality and proposed thinking about quality indicators through this piece of work with a view to present to the Committee at its next meeting in September.	Head of Registration	Progressed. The Quality Assurance Team have facilitated 2 workshops to better understand the risks associated with the international application process and to develop appropriate quality indicators. The findings and recommendations from the workshops are currently being finalised. This work will inform how we identify all the registration process related risks and report on the appropriate quality indicators across all registration processes. The Executive will present a further update on progress at the November Committee meeting.

Decision

The Committee is requested to note the actions. No decision is required.
